Fall in love with postcard perfect Kennebunkport

Kennebunk Beach

◀ BEAUTIFUL MEMORIES

Kennebunk Beach is Finn-Heyl's favorite neighborhood because you can "wake up and go to sleep with the sound of the ocean and sea gulls." If you prefer a more inland locale, the tree-lined Wildes District is a pretty little hamlet. For great photo ops, check out Cape Porpoise—where old churches, 19th-century houses, a year-round working harbor and the Goat Island Lighthouse offer the "perfect photographic backdrop for the real coast of Maine."

◀ TOWN TREASURES

Finn-Heyl says you'll find a variety of small boutiques in Dock Square. Her favorite place to shop for souvenirs is Fleurant, which specializes in beautiful flowers and unique gifts. Be sure to stop at Snug Harbor Farm, known for its topiary plants, garden furniture and fountains.

◀ CHILL OUT

Catch up over coffee at Boulangerie bakery, where you can enjoy your java and savor the aromas of fresh-baked bread. Grab a pint at popular watering hole Federal Jack's, which looks out on Kennebunkport Harbor. Take a gourmet picnic to Parsons Beach, just off Western Avenue. Back at the hotel, unwind with a "spa date night" or a butler-drawn bath.

ost for an adventure? Seek out a lighthouse or two in picturesque Maine, summer home to Person of Interest's executive producer, J.J. Abrams. Wind your way along the rocky shores to quiet luxury at The White Barn Inn, a 26-room Relais & Chateaux property and top pick by Condé Nast Traveler, where you'll be pampered in country chic. Watch! asked general manager Corinne Finn-Heyl for the best ways to discover this idyllic New England town. — as told to Mona Buebler

◀ FARM TO TABLE

Dine at The White Barn Inn Restaurant, where you can admire antique farming memorabilia while indulging in award-winning cuisine like grilled beef tenderloin with vegetable tomato ragout, potato gnocchi and cabernet sauvignon sauce. For more casual fare, The White Barn Inn Bistro boasts a local lobster pizza that's to die for.

◀ LOCAL CULTURE

Discover Maine artists and quaff wine at Mast Cove Galleries. Charter a sunset cruise with Captain John at HydiWave Water Taxi, a longtime local. Tour Kennebunkport via an old-fashioned (but motorized) San Francisco-style Intown Trolley car.
